the same time as: Smartphones and cellular connectivity have become so ubiquitous that it's a challenge to find a location that doesn't have at least one person with a smartphone nearby.

However, it's also important to consider that as much as most of us love to be connected, we also love to disconnect. So, we are giving you permission to disconnect for a bit, and we want to encourage you to take advantage of it. Use your smartphone for all the purpose that is allowed by the carrier or provider of your device. Use it to play music, watch videos, download apps and games, surf the internet, read news and communicate. You are the boss of your smartphone. So enjoy it. Happytime – Twitter Problem We at Happytime want to let you know about a problem with our Twitter application. It is possible that, if you are in the United States, some tweets are not displayed in your home timeline. The reason is that Twitter is trying to comply with legal orders and they are suspending our application. This is one of the biggest frustrations. Our Twitter application has millions of happy customers around the world and we want to continue to serve our customers. Some of the tweets are displaying in our dashboard, but they are not visible in the home timeline.

This is happening to all users and we will be working on this problem as soon as we can. We apologize for this problem and we hope to be able to restore the service soon. Happytime – App Icon We at Happytime have decided to make some changes to our app icon. This will not affect the functionality of the application and it will not make the app appear in the App Store. We just want to make the app icon more recognizable and fashionable. We have changed the image to a more dynamic one. It has more light and shadow that give it a more attractive look. New Happytime Website We have updated our website with a new look and feel. We think it is a better way to present Happytime to you, our customers. We have also re-vamped our social media pages, so it is more convenient for What's New In?

Today, we are sharing a quick and informative video tutorial for you, where we will show you how to download and play your favorite videos from YouTube, Vimeo and Dailymotion. All you need to do is to install and follow these simple steps and you will be enjoying the fun of watching movies and videos online, with ease and comfort. The free online video players like VLC, TTD and Media Player Classic are not as convenient as YouTube and Dailymotion, as they don't let you select the format and the quality of the video files to download and play. But using this YouTube Video Downloader, all of this will be taken care of by one simple and user-friendly interface. Key Features: # Download and play your favorite YouTube videos# Play YouTube videos even in offline mode# Download and play your favorite Vimeo videos# Download and play your favorite Dailymotion videos# Support up to 60fps playback# Choose your preferred quality for the downloaded videos#

Enable downloading of videos from playlist# Enable downloading of videos from RSS feed# Automatically starts download when video is loaded# Automatically stops download when video stops playing# Drag the downloaded files to the Windows Explorer# Option to download video only, with no additional options# Support proxy servers How to Play YouTube Videos: 1. First, you need to go to the YouTube website and log in with your Google account. 2. Next, click on the download option in the top-right corner of the YouTube interface. 3. Now, you will be asked to select the format for the downloaded video, in which you will be able to choose MP4, WebM, or MP3. 4. Finally, click on 'Download' and the video will be immediately downloaded to your computer. # Download and play your favorite Vimeo videos: 1. Just like with the YouTube player, you need to log in with your Google account, to be able to download your favorite Vimeo videos. 2. Now, click on the download option in the top-right corner of the interface, and you will be presented with the same options to choose from. 3. Select the format for the downloaded video file, and click on 'Download'. # Download and play your favorite Dailymotion videos: 1. Again, like with the previous players, you need to log in with your Google account to be able to download and play your favorite Dailymotion videos. 2. Click on the download option in the top-right corner of the interface, and you will be presented with the same options to choose from. 3. Select the format for the downloaded video file, and click on 'Download'. # Enable downloading of videos from playlist: 1. Once the file is downloaded, you can then play the video using the included Playlist app. 2. Click on the Videos menu, and you will see the Download folder
